

In The News

May 12, 2012

Teacher: Mrs. Zawaski

Subject Summaries

Religion- We celebrated a beautiful May Crowning on Wednesday. Our children are so lucky to experience these traditions.

Phonics- Our skill this week was to review r controlled r words. We also worked on -er and -est endings.

Reading- We completed a new genre in our reader which included the plays: Show Time and Do You Live in a Nest? Our grammar skill concentrated on sentences that give commands. The children also were writing stories using multiple paragraphs. We did this in groups this week but we will venture out on our own next week.

Math- We continued working on two digit addition and subtraction.

Science- We continued working on Space.

Don't Forget!

If you have not sent your child with a new white pillow case, please send by next week. If it is a problem for you please contact me! Thank you.

If you have not returned your track and field permission slip please due so by Monday.

Please continue to read and practice addition and subtraction flashcards nightly.

Special Events

Field Days- Thursday May 17th. Please pray for good weather!!

No School-Friday May 18th!! Teachers have an in-service.

Our last homework packet will be on May 29th due back on June 1st. The last few packets will be mainly review. My last newsletter will go out on Friday June 1st.

Birthday Bashes

A happy 7th birthday to Logan Rice. The donuts were yummy!!!!

